BB Centrum

An online webcast: The Wild Nature

WHEN: Wednesday, January 13, from 5:30 pm

WHERE: BB Centrum FB page

Karel and Jana Wolf will guide you through places on our planet which continue to resist the pressures of civilization and where people live in harmony with nature with their traditions and rituals. Through forgotten places where money is often just worthless paper, but rice means another day of life.

These people do not struggle with nature to survive, but with the modern world which is the greatest enemy to their continued existence. We will look at the Mentawai tribe in Siberut, the people of the Marapu culture on Sumba, the Himba tribe in Namibia or the Daasanach in Ethiopia. We will also find unexpected places where time stands still, for example in the mountains of Northern Vietnam or in the Mustang Kingdom.

Želetavská Street is open to two-way traffic

We would like to inform our tenants and BB Centrum visitors of the successful completion of the revitalization of Želetavská Street and its opening up to two-way traffic. Only small-scale work is currently ongoing. The relaxation area between Building D and the Villas will be opened in spring.

Želetavská Street is a mixed zone with a maximum permitted speed of 30 km/h. We ask drivers and pedestrians to respect one another in order to ensure smooth, safe operations.

Due to the low numbers of employees in the northern section of the BB Centrum, the BB2 shuttle bus will not yet be brought into operation.
