Sumer frost in Costa Coffee

Frost... it conjures up images of ice and cold. Frostino is a pleasant cooling touch on your tongue, which refreshes your body and mind wearied from the heat on the streets. Settle down for a while on an island of ice in Costa Coffee and treat yourself to a Frostino.

What is the basis of Frostina coffee? Right, espresso! The barista pours a cup of fresh coffee into a cup, adds some ice and cold milk. Then she pours it all into a blender and adds a bit of a vanilla base to the Frostina to give it its typical gentle creamy taste. And now it is up to you to choose a flavour.

And if you don't feel like coffee, choose Frostino Strawberry, prepared from cold milk and strawberry puree with cream and pieces of dried strawberries – a great choice for summer refreshment, and no caffeine!
